DOCTOR CROSBY DECLINES.

Dr. HOWARD CROSBY says that he has been misquoted, as he never said that a Police Captain made $70,000 last year by blackmailing his precinct. Dr. Crosby did not say that it was done last year, nor that it would furnish proofs of his assertion.

Does Dr. CROSBY dream that this lets him out? Does he deem it right on mere hearsay to impugn even vaguely the character of a city official? Such a statement as this is an insult to the entire body of Police captains, and whether Dr. CROSBY declared his ability to prove it or not he should be required to do so.

If a Police Captain has been blackmailed to the tune of $70,000 he should be shown up, whether he did it last year or any other. The time does not add to the offense. Dr. CROSBY should know that a man of his prominence in the community cannot throw mud without giving a reason for it. Every one is justified in refusing to accept such statements as this unless proof accompanies them.

HAPPY BEN.

While the Republicans are uttering a little squeak of pain over the dreadful pinching which they got at the polls this week, there is one of that battered outfit who can find a drop of Balm of Gilead to sooth him.

That one is Baby McKee's grandfather.

BENJAMIN HARRISON sees fewer rivals in the field for the Presidential nomination in 1892. The stalwart form of TOM REED no longer rears itself like an Eiffel Tower on the Republican horizon. This week sees him prone. THOMAS REED has taken a portentous drop, and the thud is as joyful as the call of Spring birds to the ear of BENJAMIN HARRISON. He will not have to fear so many rivals in the field. Hug the thought, Ben, to your soul. You need all the comfort you can get.

THAT ANNEX DISTRICT FIGHT.

The one defeat which Tammany Hall has to bear is that of the annexation of Tammany's part. It was a tribute to Fire Commissioner Henry D. Purroy, the leader in the Twenty-fourth Ward Annexation.

Louis J. Heintz, who was elected Commissioner of Street Improvement for the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards, was a Tammany man. He was born in the district, and naturally for the position directed the earnest efforts of a large portion of the taxpaying inhabitants of the district.

Heintz, however, will organize the Legislature, and will see that contestants are accorded a fair hearing and justice.

The young man was W. M. Fuller, who will watch the signor every day till Dec. 20 from his rooming house in the Annex, and see that the members of the Senate would treat the Annexation bill fairly.

It is pretty generally believed that Judge Purroy will be responsible. For the other two, it is not known whether they were born or not.

It is reported that the Annexation bill will be introduced in the Senate next year by Mr. C. C. Quinn, Mr. John B. Smith, Republican, and John J. Gorman, elected Democrat.

The terms of the two former expire in December, and Mr. Gorman will resign to take his place.
